Copyright and other Intellectual Property

Contents and works on this website, provided by the site operators, are subject to German copyright. PAUL HARTMANN AG reserves all rights in texts, illustrations, audio/video files and all further published information. Reproduction, processing, duplication and distribution as well as storage in data-processing systems of the whole website, or of parts of the website, require the prior written consent of PAUL HARTMANN AG.

Downloads and copies of this website are permitted only for private, not commercial use. As far as content on this website is not provided by the operator, copyrights of a third party are considered. In particular contents of third party are marked as such. Nevertheless, if you should become aware of a copyright infringement, we ask for an appropriate reference. We will immediately remove such contents when any infringement of laws becomes known.

Hartmann®, Vivano® and Hydrofilm® are trademarks of PAUL HARTMANN AG. Product names which are registered trademarks may not have been specifically designated as such in every case.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ON THE CONTENTS

ALL CONTENTS, PARTICULARLY THE EXPERT PANEL AND ITS FUNCTIONS AND THE CASE STUDIES ON THE SUBJECT OF NEGATIVE PRESSURE WOUND THERAPY WITH VIVANO ARE EXCLUSIVELY ADDRESSED TO HEALTHCARE PROFESSIONALS. THEY ARE NOT MEANT TO BE READ BY NON-EXPERTS, IN PARTICULAR NOT BY CONSUMERS.

Despite careful examination, a liability for the accuracy of the information presented in the case studies and responses from the experts cannot be assumed on the part of PAUL HARTMANN AG. All reports reflect the opinion of the individual author which is not necessarily in line with the opinion of PAUL HARTMANN AG. The authors are responsible for the information given in their reports. Prior to use of our products be sure to read the entire product leaflet carefully, in particular the instructions for use. The information in the case studies and responses of the experts do not constitute a recommendation for a certain treatment or application, nor shall it be construed as a medical advice in any way.

There is no guarantee that the results of the case studies are reproducible in comparable cases. Every patient's case has to be evaluated and examined by a physician who has to decide about the appropriate treatment.

Insofar as in the case studies and responses of the experts applications are mentioned, this does not involve any (express or implied) guarantee or responsibility on the part of PAUL HARTMANN AG in respect of any forms of application stated herein. Every user is requested to examine carefully the product leaflet and to check, if necessary in consultation with a physician or specialist, whether the applications mentioned therein differ from the statements made in the case studies and responses of the experts. Every form of application used is entirely at the user's own risk and responsibility. The case studies contain information about products which may not be available in any given country. Furthermore, the products may not have received approval or market clearance by a governmental regulatory body for different indications for use.

Liability for Content

The contents of the website of PAUL HARTMANN AG are provided with greatest of care. However, no guarantee can be given for the correctness, completeness and currency of content. As a service provider PAUL HARTMANN AG is responsible for its own contents on this website in accordance with the general laws.

PAUL HARTMANN AG is not obligated to monitor third party information that is provided or stored or to search for circumstances that indicate any infringement of laws.

Any obligation to remove or block the usage of information in accordance with the general laws remains unaffected. No liability in this respect shall arise prior to the actual knowledge of any infringement of laws. We will remove such content without undue delay upon becoming aware of the infringement.

Liability for Hyperlinks

The website of PAUL HARTMANN AG contains links to external websites of third parties, on whose contents PAUL HARTMANN AG does not have any influence. Therefore, we cannot be held responsible for any such third party content.

Only the relevant third party provider or operator is responsible for the content of linked websites. At the time the links were placed the content of linked websites was examined for possible infringements of law. Infringements of laws were not recognizable at the time the links were placed. Permanent control of the linked websites is not feasible without any specific indication of infringements. We will remove such links without undue delay as soon as we become aware of any infringement.

Data Privacy

When you visit our website, our web servers will store details of your browser and operating system, the website from which you visit our website, the pages that you visit on our website, the date of your visit, and, for security reasons, e.g. to identify attacks on our website, the IP address assigned to you by your internet service provider. With the exception of the IP address, personal data is only stored if you choose to submit it to us, e.g. during registration or in order to enable performance of an agreement.

PAUL HARTMANN AG uses your personal data only to the extent necessary for the purpose of administration of the website and in accordance with applicable laws.

The personal data you provide to PAUL HARTMANN AG in connection with the Expert Panel are only used by PAUL HARTMANN AG to provide such data to the relevant expert.

Personal data is transferred to state organizations and authorities only in accordance with mandatory national provisions of law.

PAUL HARTMANN AG uses technical and organizational security measures to protect the data supplied by you and managed by us against manipulation, loss, destruction, and access by third parties. Our security measures are continually improved in line with technological developments. Upon request, PAUL HARTMANN AG will inform you in writing without undue delay and in accordance with applicable law whether and what personal data relating to you has been stored by us.

If you have any questions about the processing of your personal data, you can contact our Data Protection Officer, who is available should you have any requests for information, suggestions or complaints.

This website uses etracker technology (www.etracker.com) to collect data on visitor behavior. The data is collected anonymously for use in marketing and optimization. All visitor data is saved using an anonymous user ID and can be used to aggregate a usage profile. Cookies may be used for this purpose. Cookies are small text files that are stored in the visitor's local browser cache. It is possible to use these cookies to recognize a visitor's browser. The data collected by the etracker technology will not be used to determine the personal identity of a website visitor, and will not be compiled with personal data relating to the person referred to by the pseudonym, unless agreed to separately by the person concerned. The collection and storage of data may be revoked at any time with respect to future services.

If you do not wish PAUL HARTMANN AG to collect and analyze statistical data related to your visit of the website you may object to the future use of your data at any time (opt-out).

For the technical implementation of your objection it is necessary to install an opt-out cookie on your browser. This cookie will only indicate that you have opted out. Please note that for technical reasons the opt-out cookie will only affect the browser you object from. If you delete the cookies in your browser or use a different end device or browser, you will need to opt out again.
